Table II. Criteria for Classifying Patient as High-Risk

- Severe hypertension prior to pregnancy or at initial visit
- Requiring $\geq 2$ antihypertensive drugs to control blood pressure
- Presence of target organ damage
  - Renal injury (serum creatinine $\geq 1.4$ mg/dl)
  - Left ventricular dysfunction
  - Retinopathy
  - History of stroke
- Poor compliance with medical care
- Poor outcome in previous pregnancies
  - Perinatal death
  - Abruptio placentae
  - Delivery at $< 34$ weeks’ gestation
- Secondary hypertension